
12 participants; each row connects the same person's two responses.
A square inside a circle indicates equal ratings.